Change Your View of Our Universe

presentation by John Cowens

Saturday, February 13, 2010

Join us for a special presentation about the Hubble Space Telescope by John Cowens in the Space Museum mezzanine. "Change Your View of Our Universe" will be followed by a free showing of the IMAX movie Space Station 3D. All event attendees will also receive complimentary passes to the Hubble 3D, which opens at the Evergreen IMAX Theater on March 19.

Cowen has been awarded several prestigious teaching awards, such as the Presidential Award for Excellence in Science and Mathematics, the American Electronics Association Science Teacher of the Year, and Educator of the Year. He was also a science columnist for Teaching K-8 magazine and received an award for contributing outstanding science lessons. Since 2002, he has served as NASA's Jet Propulsion Laboratory's Solar System Ambassador and disseminates space exploration information to the general public.
